FACT SHEET 2013

H.B. 2855

Increase Opportunities for Hard-Working Individuals with Criminal Records By Reducing the Onerous Fees Required for Non-Disclosure Petitions

LESSENING COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH FILING CIVIL PETITIONS WILL ALLOW LOW-INCOME INDIVIDUALS TO RETURN TO WORK

There are indisputable barriers to success for people with criminal records. Depending on the crime, a person convicted of an offense in Texas will have a difficult time, or be absolutely barred from, finding housing or employment; becoming licensed for a particular occupation; obtaining an educational loan; or receiving federal or state benefits for basic human needs.<sup>1</sup>

In recognition of this, Texas courts have the option of ordering the criminal conviction of an individual to be sealed, especially if that person has successfully completed a term of deferred adjudication and petitioned for an order of non-disclosure.<sup>2</sup>

However, the fees necessary to file a civil court petition may sometimes prevent otherwise-qualified individuals from petitioning the courts for an order of non-disclosure. Those fees average between $250 and $300 in most Texas district courts, which may be a week's paycheck for an individual in a low-paying job who is seeking to climb the employment ladder and would benefit from a sealed record.

KEY FINDINGS

- Criminal records compromise an individual's ability to enter the workforce.<sup>3</sup> Individuals with a conviction cannot qualify for many employment positions that require licenses (including air conditioning and refrigeration contractors, electricians, water well drillers, dog trainers, and many others),<sup>4</sup> leaving many returning individuals scrambling to find employment.
- In fact, people with criminal convictions receive half as many job offers as job seekers without convictions,<sup>5</sup> which means that sealing an individual's criminal record, if ordered by a court, has enormous impact on the employment options and future success of those individuals.
- Criminal records also destabilize Texans by creating barriers to safe housing. Under statutes in all 50 states, rental property owners may – but are not required to – screen for and refuse to rent to people with criminal backgrounds.<sup>6</sup>

COST-SAVING AND PUBLIC SAFETY-DRIVEN SOLUTION: SUPPORT H.B. 2855 BY REPRESENTATIVE MILES

- H.B. 2855 will waive the usual fee imposed for initiating a civil petition, while still requiring a $28 filing fee. Many individuals who are caught in the cycle of low-level crime are often under-employed and without the means to pay the $250 or more needed to initiate a civil petition for non-disclosure. This bill will give these men and women a fair chance to re-enter the work force without fear of being discriminated against for a criminal record, thus reducing the likelihood of costly re-offending.
